Rockford Mass Transit Loans River Valley Metro buses

Bourbonnais, IL – Friday, January 15, 2010

River Valley Metro has recently been notified of a potential safety issue with a certain model of buses they operate. Until this situation can be investigated and rectified Metro will not put these buses into service. The Rockford Mass Transit District has generously loaned Metro five buses from their fleet, so Metro can continue to operate. “It was important to us to maintain service for our customers,” stated River Valley Metro Chairman David Hinderliter. “We want to extend a special thank-you to our fellow mass transit district in Rockford for lending us buses to do just that.”

“We just wanted to inform our passengers and the general public about the Rockford buses being in our area. All buses will be operated by our staff,” said managing director Robert Hoffmann. “Your safety is our first priority and we are working hard to rectify this situation and get back to business as usual.”

If you have any questions you can call River Valley Metro at (815) 937-4287 or log on to rivervalleymetro.com.
